

Exclusive shopping tour

of London's top men's purveyors of clothing & accessories

of London's top men's purveyors of clothing & accessories

Enjoy the very bastions of quintessential British style

You will be transferred by luxury coach to Savile Row for a day's tour of some of London's most exclusive 'fashion' addresses.

Having informed us previously of your favoured styles and your own personal details, we will have prepared a curated selection of bespoke options for you to try out and choose. Suits, jackets, shirts...whether it be the latest look favoured by local celebrities or the more traditional British cut, you will have a wide variety of choices.

Once you have been looked after and chosen your made to order garments, we will accompany you to St. James' and Jermyn Street for a private look in to some of the city's most exclusive shirtmakers, accessories or wine merchants and cigar importers.

The very bastions of quintessential British style will be open to you. Following the shopping tour, you will be able to relax in the quieter, tranquil atmosphere of the newly refurbished Brown's Hotel, one of London's oldest establishments,

Includes:

- * Services of a London Guide
- * Transfers by Coaches
- * Champagne
- * Lunch
- * Cognac & Cigars

where you will be able to partake in a wine or whisky tasting.

Following drinks, you will be free to wander round Old Bond Street's upmarket shops and pop into the exclusive art galleries in Albemarle and Dover Streets.

For further information call Baba or Alistair on 0208 962 0601, or email alistair@globalguestlist.com